

Postcards (part 3)

Jude

Sermon Questions:

1. Pray
2. Read Jude
3. What are some examples of teaching or philosophies encouraging people to “do whatever feels right to them?” Have you ever heard these philosophies in the world? In a church?
4. Throughout Jude 4-16 we see a consistent case made that demonstrates God as a judge. He has judged the rebellious in the past, and the implication is that He will judge the rebellious today as well. Do you have a hard time imagining God in this way? Why or why not? Why do you think God imposes such a strict standard on those who teach inside the church?
5. In the message we talked about reading the Bible, revering the God of the Bible and realigning with the Bible. From this section of the message did you have any particular plans or applications that you want to implement in your life?
6. Are there any in your life that God would have you reach out to compassionately to call to embrace the truth of the Scripture and not continue to live in willful rebellion?
7. In the doxology of Jude 24-25, we see a picture of Jesus fighting for us - upholding us from falling and presenting us in glory. How does this picture of Jesus encourage you as you “fight for the faith” today?
8. Have you trusted in Jesus for the forgiveness of your sins? Is He your rescuer from sin and judgment? If not, would you trust Him now?
9. What stands out to you most from this message? Any particular takeaway?
